

A great partnership

Lingwood Food Services, one of the UK's leading providers of food processing equipment, are teaming up with Italian manufacturer, Siate Srl to provide flexible tray sealing solutions for the food industry.

Ian Hope, managing director of Lingwood, said: "This has allowed us to broaden our portfolio to provide even more food processing solutions for our clients and is in line with our policy of working with the highest quality machinery manufacturers."

Thanks to constant development of new products and experimentation with innovative new technologies. Siate Srl is one of the leading companies in the vacuum heat-sealing sector and in the development of fully automated packaging lines.

If you are looking for a complete solution in processing your products in the most efficient and cost effective way and still achieving the highest quality of presentation, Lingwood Food Services, based in East Anglia, are the ideal Company to fulfil your requirements.
